Montana News

The Montana Post of February 17th contains the following:

INDIAN NEWS

On Sunday, the 11th inst., two messengers from Fort Benton, reported the camp of Piegans ten miles from the Fort, on the alert for mischief. Mr Steel is at one of his houses in the face of all there and has not been able to recover it. Parties from the Fort returned when procuring wood from across the Missouri. They also report an abundance of arms ammunition and whisky. Rumors are current, in town, that two men have been killed near Sun river farm.

MATTERS AT GALLATIN VALLEY.

From Mr A W Clark—formerly Justice of the Peace at Florence, Idaho, now a well known resident of the Gallatin and a most energetic and reliable citizen—we learn that the progress in agriculture made by the inhabitants of that far-famed valley, is surprising, and that many of them are getting rich, while not a few of them are already quite comfortable. At least six thousand acres of wheat will be sown in the spring, and the probability is that the crop will much exceed this estimate. The soil of the valley is sandy loam with tracts of clay here and there interspersed, but these latter spots are avoided being too cold and wet for profitable farming. Although the winter has been the coldest ever experienced, there has not yet been snow enough there for sleighing. Hundreds of muskrats have been frozen in their houses. Mr Clark dug out five, in one house. Ninety yoke of cattle were put out to pasture, late last fall, in the poorest possible condition, and only three head have been lost. Mr Harrison's herd (California Company) of about one thousand head are now nearly all in good condition for the butcher. As an instance of the profits which industrious men may realize, we may cite the brothers Dunbar, who have made nearly $13,000 from eight acres of land, the first year, commencing almost without capital, and with but one team. Johnny Grant, of Deer Lodge, and his partner, are putting up a first-class flouring mill, at the three forks of the Missouri. Two out-buildings are already finished, and the stone and timber for the main structure are on the ground. It will be finished in time to grind the next crop. The valley is thickly settled in many places, for a distance of forty miles, and any industrious person who has, or can get, a farm and there, is sure of a good living and a competence. The distance from the Eastern and Western bases of supplies is so great that the home producer may rely on obtaining a magnificent reward for his labor, for many years to come. On the 5th inst., a man named Silas Jewett was found hanging in full sight of Gallatin City, and Mr Montague reports that another was discovered, in the act of stretching a rope, over at East Gallatin, on the 4th inst. Jewett had been arrested at Diamond City, where it seems that he had met a young man, between whom and himself there had been some previous quarrel, and that on being asked how he was getting along, he said he would show him; that he drew his pistol as he spoke and aimed at his interrogator, but he struck aside his pistol, the ball from which entered the breast of another man, a German named Fisher, who was entering the room, and dangerously wounded him. After a preliminary examination, he was suffered to depart in custody of the sheriff, who took him to his home in Gallatin and when going to a ball, left him in a neighboring house, under charge of two men. In the mean time, the facts of this case had become known, and the prisoner's previous lawless character had been ascertained. A party of Western Vigilantes, from Diamond City, followed him, and taking him to a tree in the neighborhood hanged him then and there. Concerning the other man executed, no particulars have yet reached us; but "its us for nestling the gled wheelies."

BANNACK ITEMS

Colonel Wood is running the New York mill with quartz from No 12, Dacotah. It is paying well and it is probable that not one-fifth of the precious metal is saved.

Mr. Batchelder has begun work on No. 5 Dacotah, again, and it is believed that he will have plenty of good quartz by spring.

Another attempt has been made to cross the divide, for Lemhi, but in vain. The snow is too deep. The party that got over early in the winter has not been heard from.

At a meeting held on the night of the 4th, a resolution giving the Bannack Ditch and Mining Company the privilege to pre-empt and purchase claims in this district was defeated. Some trouble may yet occur between said Company and the miners; but we trust that a course will yet be adopted satisfactory to all, and beneficial to the community.

Quite a number of Bannackites have recently taken up ranches on Beaverhead, about the confluence of Rattlesnake and Black-Tail Deer creeks. There has not been any snow in that vicinity, to cover the grass, this winter. The warm springs are excellent for stock. A good many cattle and sheep are being wintered there, and are in fine condition. A good deal of preparation is being made for farming. We regard that valley as one of the most desirable in the Territory.

On the 5th inst., a man named Geo Brown, committed suicide by blowing his brains out with a rifle. He was a very industrious, honest, and highly respected man; but was unsuccessful in business. Those best acquainted with him, say that he has been, at times, out of his right mind, for the past few weeks. A friend of his, who tried to prevent him from committing the rash act, was compelled to run from the room to save his own life. Mr Brown threatened to shoot him, and even aimed his rifle at him.

GULCH MINING.—Alder Gulch will be worked thoroughly next season. Ground sluicing on an extensive scale will be commenced early. The Nelson Mining Company are all ready to hail the breaking up of winter, with the scream of their steam whistle and the discharge of a hydraulic salute; while down at Junction all is being prepared for heavy work on the bars and in the new gulch. We are of opinion that more money will be taken out next season than ever before, the nature and extent of the proposed operations fully warranting the supposition.

QUARTZ IN MADISON COUNTY.—We have ascertained, on inquiry, that the number of lodes registered in the office of the Recorder of Madison county, in this city, is seventeen hundred and forty. This, of itself, would show the enormous mineral wealth of our Territory, for if only one in fifty prove valuable, there would be ample room for three hundred mills to start with. If the one thousand one hundred lodes, of Deer Lodge, be added, on the same terms, without counting Beaverhead, Edgerton and the outlying districts, the idea of the vast amount of gold and silver in Montana, and of the labor and capital that will be eventually employed in making it available—is perfectly astounding. Beaverhead and Edgerton counties have enormous numbers of lodes, and the searching for them is yet only well begun all over the Territory.

ROBBERY, ARREST AND CONFESSION.—Charley Brown, "the easy going, but expert Montana Detective," says the Vedette of the 10th inst., arrested Frank Avery, late of Montana, for robbing Mr John Gibson, late of Fort Hall Station, of $3,000 in gold. At a faro table, Avery produced a sack which excited Charley's suspicion, and he pressed him so shrewdly that he confessed it was Gibson's. The purse contained $1,200; the remaining $1,800 he had doubtless spent. Avery was lodged in jail.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

General Meagher arrived in town from Helena, on last Monday. He is making preparations for his campaign against the Indians.

Judge Munson has pronounced decrees of separation in five cases of divorce, since his arrival in this city, about one month ago.

J G Sanders has resigned his commission as Quartermaster to the expeditionary force organizing at Helena.

Bruce Smith, Esq., editor of the Radiator, arrived by last night's coach, and we were pleased to form his very agreeable acquaintance.

The county jail of Madison contains, at present, only three criminals. One is from Deer Lodge, one from Edgerton, and one from this county.

Our old acquaintance, "X," is in town. He is the bearer of dispatches to the Governor, brought from Fort Benton by Charley Carson, a nephew of the celebrated Kit Carson, the renowned Indian fighter of the West.

The County Clerk of Madison county has issued a notice of election for the 24th inst., for ten delegates to the convention at Helena, and also for one member of the Council and one Representative, to fill vacancies.

James McGuire, a well known miner of Alder Gulch, had all his stock stolen, near Pole Creek, while on his way to the States. He was travelling in company with McClurg's train. So we learn from a private letter to a gentleman in this city.

In the matter of the United States against twenty two packages of spirits in the possession of D Slavin and D Roop, the court ordered the confiscation of the articles seized, proof of payment of duty not being adduced to the satisfaction of the court.

The fast passenger steamboat, Fanny Ogden will leave St Louis for Fort Benton on the first of April. Little or no freight will be carried. This is a fine opportunity for citizens here, having families in the States to bring them speedily and safely to Montana.

The Senators of the United States who voted originally to pass the Freedmen's Bureau bill and yesterday voted to kill it were Messrs Dixon of Connecticut, Doolittle of Wisconsin, Morgan of New York, Norton of Minnesota, Stewart of Nevada, and Van Winkle of West Virginia. Of these, the vote of Governor Morgan amazes us most, but Minnesota will be apt to suspect that there is something queer about one of her Senators also.—N Y Tribune Feb 21

WHEREAS, The issues pending before the American people are of vital importance, and we are still called to resist the encroachments of wary, treacherous foes, seeking to do by intrigue and subterfuge, what they have utterly failed to accomplish in the late rebellion; and

WHEREAS, The Union party, under God, has been the means of preserving our national unity, bearing the burden and heat of the day through terrible years of civil war, until victory crowned the soldiers of the Republic, in their conflict with treason and rebellion, therefore be it

Resolved, That to the Union party we still look for that patient, manly steadfastness of patriotism which shall make the conquest of Truth and Right as complete in the field of public opinion, as it has been on the field of battle.

Resolved, That the example of courage and devotion set by our Union soldiers on land and sea, are above all praise, and while their memory is fresh in our hearts, we will not by act or vote, put in peril the heritage their valor has so gloriously won.

Resolved, That we are not in favor of men for law-makers who have so recently been engaged in a deadly effort to overthrow all law, and with the lessons of the past before us, we are opposed to the admission of men into Congress who have been guilty of perfidy and treachery, by deserting their country's flag and waging a long, fierce war for the destruction of the nation.

Resolved, That, not for purposes of revenge, but for a solemn warning in the future, we desire with President Johnson, that treason may be made odious by the punishment of traitors.

Resolved, That the good faith of our nation is pledged to the payment of our national debt, and we are, as we always have been, opposed to repudiation.

Resolved, That we are forever opposed to the assumption, either directly or indirectly, by our Government, of any part of the rebel debt.

Resolved, That we are not in favor of unjust discrimination, but think representation in Congress should be based upon the popular vote alone.

Resolved, That we are not in favor of men for places of profit or trust, who were on the wrong side, in the crisis through which we have passed, but are for those true and tried men who stood as pillars in the state during the country's darkest days.

On motion it was ordered that the proceedings of this meeting, with copies of resolutions, be forwarded to the Union papers of the State with a request to publish the same.

W. W. BUCK, President.

FRED CHARMAN, Secretary.

[illegible] OF THE STATE

MONDAY MORNING, MARCH 19, 1866

Democratic Consistency

From reports and resolutions which are constantly appearing in the Copperhead papers of the State it would seem that the Confederates are flocking together to hearten and strengthen each other for the coming election. Resolutions are again in order. Soap Creek fixes up its regular biennial resolutions and sends them to the faithful of Long Tom. Long Tom responds touching up the resolutions to suit the peculiar views of some [illegible] Confederate citizens, and sends them greeting to their allies in other Democratic localities. Columns of these resolutions setting forth the true Doctrine of the faith, find their way into the Copperhead papers. Could the Union party be overwhelmed and put down by resolutions, the day of its destruction would be at hand. In three points, all the resolutions now being published by the Democracy strikingly agree. The first is hostility to the negro; the second, opposition to revenue stamps and the third, a denial of the right of secession and an affirmation that the Southern members rebels and all should be at once admitted into Congress. The last point is set forth in the following resolution by the "Washington County Democracy."

Resolved, That the refusal of the present Congress to admit the representatives from the Southern States is a violation of the Constitution and an admission of the validity of the doctrine of secession.

Time works changes. Here we find those who of late years have unceasingly proclaimed the right of secession now denying it and endeavoring to throw the odium of the abominable doctrine on their opponents. Two years ago in their State Convention the Oregon Democracy passed resolutions sustaining the doctrine of secession:

"The Constitution of the United States being a compact among powers having no common judge, each party has an equal right to judge for itself, as well of infractions as of the mode and measure of redress." This doctrine the Democrats of Oregon have repeatedly endorsed. It asserts the right of secession; nothing less, nothing more. On the very same doctrine the rebels founded their claim to the right to secede from the Union. The Northern Democracy kept resolving that the States had the right to withdraw from the Union and the Southern Democracy went on to carry the resolution into effect. The rebels were discontented with the Government and proceeded to judge of, and put in operation the "mode of redress." But now, after having held to the doctrine of secession all their lives, our Oregon Democrats thinking to get rebels into Congress by renouncing it, resolve strongly against it and try to make it appear that their opponents have acknowledged the validity of all that the rebels have done to destroy the Union. A party which has advocated the right of secession from the beginning, which five years ago declared that the States could not be "coerced" because there was no warrant in the Constitution for such a proceeding, which has always heretofore insisted that it was entirely optional with any State whether it would remain in the Union or not, and which based its opposition to the war for the Union on the ground that the State in seceding had done nothing more than exercise their undeniable Constitutional right, now retracts, reverses its position and declares that the insurgent States never were out of the Union, that they cannot get out and that former Democratic platforms have been built on principles utterly untenable and totally false.

The position of the Democracy five years ago was this. The Southern States had seceded, were rightfully out of the Union and could not, at least justly, be forced back. The South having seceded peaceably, constitutionally and properly, the North began the war, was responsible for its continuance, and ought to fail at the close. Their position now is this. The Southern States had neither the power nor the right to secede; their secession ordinances were invalid, and being invalid no one is responsible for them or for what was done under them. The act of secession was the act of States and not of the people, and, as a consequence, the people cannot be punished therefor. Being innocent of any crime, the Southern people cannot be deprived of any of their rights, and can properly demand the admission of their members into Congress without inquiry as to their loyalty.

Not two years ago Democratic Representatives openly declared on the floor of Congress that "there was not a vestige of the Constitution remaining;" that "the Confederate States were out of the Union, occupying the position of an independent power de facto," that they had "maintained their independence nearly three years," and that the war had cut asunder all the ligaments, and abrogated all the obligations that bound them under the Constitution." Do they still adhere to that opinion? Not at all; but to the opposite doctrine. They are now proclaiming that the rebel States never were out of the Union, and could not by any possibility get out. It's the old story of the "eternal unchanging principles," over again.

Yet inconsistent as the Democracy are in principle, they are consistent enough in practice. Five years ago their object was to aid the rebellion; their present object is to do their rebellious friends a service. They are consistently inconsistent. There is "method in their madness."

Organize Union Clubs.—Now that the Union tickets are getting into the field, the Union men who have, through the war, stood unflinchingly in support of the Government, should provide for a courageous and determined fight, that the cause for which we have suffered so fearfully, may not be lost in the hour of fruition. Organize everywhere for a vigorous campaign. Form Union Clubs in every city, town and school district, provide for regular meetings and the fullest discussions of the current issues. We have nothing to fear if the people are not allowed to become careless and inactive supposing the great contest for the Union freedom and right, closed with the surrender of the rebel armies. The work is not yet done. The country has need of the services of all its true men till the Union be completely restored and the principles for which we have sacrificed countless lives, be firmly established in practice. Your work will be easier of accomplishment, if you work together. Frequent and open conferences will enable you to thoroughly understand each other. Go about the organization of Union Clubs, at once.

Victoria Items.—The Chronicle of the 14th says the submarine telegraph cable to connect the main land with that city, is expected in eight or ten days by the ship Heloise.

A Big Bend miner has just arrived with $7 000 from French Creek, which the Chronicle thinks is a big thing from Big Bend.

The schooner A. Crosby is advertised to sail to Portland direct.

Louis Leg [illegible] was killed by accident on the 7th in the Douglas pit of the V. C. Company at Nanaimo. He was crushed by a descending loaded skip.

The Oregon Herald.—This Democratic daily made its appearance on Saturday morning. The first number contains the usual salutations and its editor promises to expound and support "Democratic principles." We are not yet made aware which of the many phases or kinds of modern Democracy the Herald will undertake to defend. It will no doubt speak for itself on this point in due time.

DATES TO MARCH 17

Mexican Loan.—Mayor of New Orleans.

Washington, March 16.—Robert Dale Owen [illegible] before the House Committee on Foreign Affairs yesterday, [illegible] in favor of the new proposition to guarantee the $50,000,000 loan to the Republic of Mexico. He believed it was the duty of the United States to render a [illegible] against the machinations of [illegible].

Governor Lyon of Idaho, Removed—Constitutional Amendment—Test Oath.

Washington, March 16.—The Secretary of Arizona [illegible] Lyon.

The Constitutional Amendment [illegible] having been postponed by general consent.

An important case is before the Supreme Court [illegible] test oath [illegible] Missouri. There is also before the Court the case of Bowles and Milligan, Knights of the Golden Circle, convicted at Indianapolis by a Military Commission, sentenced to death and subsequently pardoned. This involves the legality of the military trials in States where civil Courts are in full operation.

Over two hundred Quakers are emigrating from North Carolina to Iowa, because of the persistent persecution in the former State. A large number have passed here already.

Congressional.

In the House, Price of Iowa asked leave to introduce the following:

Whereas, A difference of opinion and conflict of views appears to exist between the Secretary of the Treasury and the Comptroller of the currency, which has assumed a shape calculated to injure the financial interests of the country, therefore—

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to investigate the cause of the difficulty, and report to the House.

Boutwell objected, but subsequently withdrew his objection, which Ross of Illinois renewed, saying he did not want Price to be chairman of such an important committee.

Holbrook, delegate from Idaho introduced a bill to establish a post route from Idaho City to Rocky Bar, and to create the office of Surveyor General for that Territory.

Bradford, delegate from Colorado, introduced a bill in relation to the Colorado land district. Referred to the committee on Territories.

Henderson, of Oregon, presented a joint resolution from the State of Oregon for establishing a port of entry at Portland, and also for a daily mail from Portland to Idaho. Referred.

The House resumed the consideration of the Loan bill. Stevens of Pennsylvania spoke against it, saying that it conferred rather more power than was ever before laid in one man and if such power should be conferred no business community could feel safe. He believed there would be a financial crisis. Garfield spoke in favor of the bill.

In the Senate, Wilson of Massachusetts, introduced a joint resolution appropriating $50,000 for the publication of the medical and surgical history of the late war.

Harris of New York, from the Judiciary committee, reported back, with amendments, the bill to re-organize the Judiciary of the United States.

Poland, of Vermont, introduced a bill fixing the salaries of U. S. District Judges, which gives $5 000 each to the Judges of Massachusetts, southern New York, eastern Pennsylvania, Maryland, East Virginia, eastern Louisiana, northern California, Oregon and Nevada, and all others $4 000 each.

Stewart, of Nevada, offered the following preamble and resolutions, which were referred to the Joint Committee:

Whereas, In consideration of the present distracted condition of the country, it is eminently proper that all legal and constitutional means should be employed for the removal of unreasonable prejudices and the obliteration of all hostile feelings growing out of the late unhappy civil war, and

Whereas, One of the most prolific sources of unfriendly sentiments is a conflict of opinion on the subject of negro suffrage, and

Whereas, It is now evident there is no probability whatever that Senators and Representatives from States lately in rebellion will be permitted to occupy seats until such States have complied with certain fundamental conditions, a part of which are here recited; and

Whereas, It is unreasonable to expect the re-establishment of harmony and good feeling as long as the people of eleven States are prevented from resuming their full relations to the Government; therefore

Be it resolved, That the people of said States shall be recognized as having fully resumed their relations when they shall have amended their constitutions so as to do away with all distinction of civil rights on account of race or color, and provided for the extension of suffrage in conditions applicable to all inhabitants, and

Resolved, That with the acceptance of these conditions general amnesty shall be proclaimed.

Resolved, That all other States not above specified be respectfully invited to incorporate similar principles in their State constitutions.

Stewart, in presenting the above, said he wanted the people of the South to have an opportunity to act on this subject before Congress undertakes to settle it for them. He said the proposition accorded with the President's letter to Governor Sharkey, last August, and he had no reason to believe that the President had changed his views since that time.

Washington, March 17.—Senator Conness will revise his land bill and re-introduce it next week, when a synopsis will be telegraphed.

The House sat till near midnight last night and finally rejected the treasury loan bill by a close vote of two majority. Ayes, 60; noes 65. A reconsideration will be attempted on Monday. During the debate preceding the final vote, Mr. Hooper explained that the object of the bill was simply to give the Government an extension of time to meet its obligations about to fall due. He wanted the fact to go to the country that we are in a healthy financial condition, able to pay every dollar we owe.

Mr. Sloan of Wisconsin, moved to insert a proviso that all bonds and other obligations of the United States hereafter issued shall be made payable, principal and interest, in lawful money and all acts that authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to withdraw permanently from circulation United States notes not bearing interest, are hereby repealed, which was rejected. Ayes 31; noes, 71.

Mr. Morrill said the finances of the country are not yet out of peril. The worst and most dangerous time is yet to come, as was always the case after a period of great inflation. Gentlemen had said we had not a redundant currency. The circulation now almost amounted to $944 000 000, equal to $30 per capita of the population. No one could deny that it was too much.

Mr. Stevens' substitute was rejected by a vote of 31 against 72.

Mr. Stevens' second amendment, authorizing the Secretary to exchange all indebtedness for the purpose of retiring treasury notes, was rejected. Ayes, 31; noes, 72.

The question then recurred on the passage of the bill, which was amended. It provides that the act of March 3d, 1865, shall be extended and construed to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury at his discretion to receive any treasury notes or obligations, whether bearing interest or not, in exchange for any description of bonds authorized by the said act, either in the United States or elsewhere, to such an amount and in such manner and at such rates as he may think advisable, for lawful money of the United States and for any treasury notes, certificates of indebtedness or certificates of deposit or other representatives of value which have been or which may be issued under the act of Congress, and the proceeds thereof only to be used for retiring treasury notes or other issued under any act of Congress; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the increase of the public debt, provided that the act to which this is amendatory shall continue in force in all its provisions except as modified by this act. Action was taken amid great excitement, a majority of two being against the bill. The friends of the measure endeavored to effect a change, and Mr. Garfield entered a motion to reconsider.

The only matter of interest in the Senate yesterday was the conversion of Senator Stewart, of Nevada to radical ideas. After Stewart's speech, in which he announced himself a new convert to the necessity for the colored suffrage, Senators Yates and Wilson tendered similar welcomes, Wilson saying "there is no doubt but that Mr Stewart's proposition will be favorably considered both by the Senate and House."

Colored Troops to be Mustered Out.

Washington, March 17th.—The President has directed that forty thousand colored troops be mustered out during the next month. The Senate is not in session to-day and the House is only open for general debate.

A Letter from Gov. Brownlow.—A Bad State of Affairs.

The Nashville papers contain a letter from Gov. Brownlow to Wm. D. Kelly, member of Congress, dated the 8th, wherein he says when Richmond fell and our armies routed the rebels, and many who sympathized with them were very respectful to Union men, and often obsequious. Guilty culprits, they evidently feared arrest and punishment and felt that to be let alone and allowed to live was all they had a right to expect; but since pardons had been so multiplied and no man been punished they have everywhere become impudent and defiant, until in most counties in Middle and West Tennessee it is disreputable to have been a Union man or as a southern man to have served in the Union army, and matters are growing worse. Reconstructed traitors are openly outraging loyal men, threatening them with shooting or hanging, boasting that they have the President on their side while we all feel that the President's policy is ruinous to us; the most popular men in the largest portion of Tennessee to day, are men most distinguished for their hostility to the North and what they are pleased to term a radical Congress, and they are the [illegible] of men selected to fill offices as the late county elections show. The same is true of the entire South, only to a greater extent. Many of them are expecting the President to disperse Congress with bayonets as Cromwell dispersed the Long Parliament. These authors [illegible] thirsting for deeds of war and all this and more I believe has been caused by the mistakes of the President. His plan of trusting the rebels with State governments has had an effect exactly opposite of what he intended, and [illegible] the prospects of the Union men and they feel there is no safety for them, unless Congress protects them.

The Clark-McCulloch Controversy.

Chicago, March 17.—The New York Times says Comptroller Clark's letter is wholly out of taste altogether and much to be regretted. For this act, if he was not known as an intelligent banker, it should be placed [illegible] of treasury accounts, a course which [illegible] appears to be only a captious and reckless purpose. The New York Tribune says Comptroller Clark's letter may be of [illegible] to the writer, but in this letter [illegible] as an impertinent interference of a subordinate in matters solely in the charge of the Secretary [illegible] justly more [illegible] to the [illegible] degree. Massachusetts Legislative Resolutions on Public Affairs.

Chicago, March 17.—The Massachusetts Legislature on the 14th inst. adopted the resolutions on the state of the country, after two weeks' discussion.

Mr. Sumner's friends initiated the resolution thanking Mr. Wilson by name, for his course on the Constitutional Amendment, which would be a rebuke to Mr. Sumner and the resolution was adopted thanking the whole delegation for their firmness in resisting the [illegible] of the Southern Representatives in the [illegible] of losing by legislation, all we have gained by the war.

San Francisco, March 17.—The anniversary of St. Patrick's Day was duly observed here. The procession formed at 10 o'clock and pieced by the Jackson Guards, Capt. O'Brien as an advance, took up the route of march on Third, Kearny and Stockton streets, through Market to Montgomery through Montgomery to Jackson, thence through Sansome, through Bush into Market, through Market to Second, through Second to Folsom, through Folsom to Third, thence to Union Hall, where an oration was delivered by Rev. [illegible] in addition to [illegible] were the Hibernian Society, the Fenians, [illegible] Sons of the Emerald Isle and St. Joseph's Benevolent Society. Each society was accompanied by a band, and with their bright regalia and waving banners presented an attractive appearance. There was a full turn out of the Irish regiment, Col. Smith, which made a most creditable display. The sidewalks along the line of the procession were lined with spectators and flags waved from the public buildings and numerous houses in honor of the occasion. Appropriate services were held in the different Catholic Churches, and at 11 A. M. a pontifical high mass was celebrated in St. Mary's Cathedral, listened to by a large congregation.

The celebration of the anniversary will close with an annual ball given by the different Irish societies this evening, among the most prominent of which will be the ball of the Fenians and the [illegible] anniversary ball of the McMahon Grenadier Guards, which are given at Platt's Hall.

James Kennedy, aged 34 years, a resident of California for twelve years, was found dead in his bed at 18 Davis street this morning. The cause of his death was consumption.

N. B.—Particular attention is requested to the advantages afforded by the payment of the premiums, on both Life and Endowment assurance policies, in TEN ANNUAL INSTALMENTS. The rates of such premiums charged by this Company are lower while the dividends are greater, than in any other life company in the United States.) As an additional inducement, the Company will, on surrender of such a policy, issue paid up policy for an equitable sum which they will guarantee shall [illegible] the [illegible] amount.

For instance, on surrender of a policy for $10,000 (other amounts in the same proportion,) on which the [illegible] are payable in ten annual instalments, the Company will issue a PAID-UP POLICY which they will guarantee.

After the payment of 2 premiums SHALL EXCEED [illegible] 3 [illegible] $000

And so on. On the Five Year Life Plan the pro rata is double.

ENDOWMENT POLICIES are issued payable to the assured at death or any age between 40 and 60, with full participation in the surplus of the Company, thus combining Life Insurance with a safe and profitable investment.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION is called to the Table of Rates by Ten Annual Instalments for "Endowments," issued by this Company, which present UNEQUALED ATTRACTIONS EITHER AS AN INVESTMENT OR PROVISION IN CASE OF PREMATURE DEATH, for it is now universally conceded that aside from the Life Insurance which is combined with the Policy, that there is no way of investing small instalments in so safe and highly advantageous a manner, as it gives the assured the entire benefits of an immense capital and well regulated Financial Institution. To parties in business its invaluable, and by many is considered an actual necessity for present purposes ALONE, for aside from its many other advantages it constitutes the VERY FINEST FORM OF COLLATERAL upon which to borrow or convert into cash in cases of emergency, which can be readily accomplished, and for a far greater sum than has been expended on the Policy—Inasmuch as from the first it shares in the immense dividends of the Company, and is non forfeitable for a full proportionate amount of the entire policy for each and every year's premium paid thereon.

The above class of Policy is attracting much attention throughout the United States. THOUSANDS who have heretofore declined insuring are now rapidly availing themselves of its benefits, as the [illegible] of increase in the assets of this Company will attest. The cash assets of this Company alone, exceed in amount the total cash assets of the other sixteen companies combined, incorporated in the State of New York, while the CASH dividends for the last two years were nearly double that ever declared by any other Company.

Parties desirous to insure should start in at once to SECURE A FULL YEAR'S DIVIDEND to be declared February 1st, 1867. Apply to ST PATRICK'S DAY IN PORTLAND.—Agreeable to the wishes of those who desired to see the anniversary of St Patrick creditably commemorated in this city on Saturday last the weather which so essentially contributes to such events in Oregon was most propitious for the occasion. The sun shone forth as if specially designed for the purpose of removing all obstacles to the utmost hilarity, and the air, which was so pure and gentle for several days previous, seemed to have been offered for the express object of appeasing all who have been offended at the bad condition of our streets for the past several months by rendering the avenues safe for travel, and favoring the march of the procession.

ARRIVALS FROM VANCOUVER

With the usual punctuality the steamer Fannie Troup, Capt. Trumbull, reached her wharf at 9½ a. m., bedecked with streaming banners, tastefully decorated and entwined with the Green of Erin and the Red, White and Blue of America. The popular band of the 14th Infantry, the Hibernian Society, and Fenian Brotherhood, together with many citizens of Vancouver arrived by her, and after landing, were escorted by the Hibernian and Fenian organizations of this city to the Catholic Church, on Stark street, where services were performed—Father Fierney officiating. At the close of the impressive discourse by this eminent divine

THE PROCESSION

Formed, under the direction of W. P. Burke and Assistant Marshals, and proceeded to march, as was designated by the programme, through the principal streets of the city. The display was very creditable and attractive. The music, which was specially selected by the leader of the Band as most appropriate to the day, was well calculated to stir up in the breast of any patriotic Irishman, the warmest blood for the love of his country, much more readily than could the most learned and eloquent speaker and as the [illegible] passed several places it was feelingly applauded. The banners and devices borne by the procession were properly attested, and we care not whether Irish or American, or the representative of other nation, looked upon them, the sentiment that was sure to be spontaneous would quite readily conform to that of the illustrious Frenchman who has said —"The union of the civilized world and humanity itself have just reason to be proud of the Irish race; for there is no people around whom their patriotism, their [illegible] morals their courageous faith, their unconquerable fidelity, their bravery their ardor for civilization, their disinterestedness their patient endurance, their poetry, their eloquence have thrown a halo more captivating, more glorious." This is a truthful, generous and noble eulogy, and finds response in every clime, is echoed by the wise and virtuous everywhere. Halting at the St. Mary's Academy, the Band performed some [illegible] pieces, which were replied to by the children of the Academy, who sang and played very [illegible]

THE DINNER.

Arriving at the New Columbian Hotel, where a dinner had been prepared by mine host, P. B. [illegible], that would do credit to any city in the country, the procession broke ranks and proceeded to the large dining saloon. After discussing to the fullest extent the bountiful bill of fare, the cloth was removed, and the following toasts were offered, and responses made:—

"The Day we Celebrate,"—response by Mr. O'Hara.

"Ireland as she was—not as she is—but as she ought to be;"—response by Captain O'Regan.

"The Land of our Adoption and our Fathers before us,"—responded by Mr. Ireland.

"The Army and Navy,"—response by Sheriff [illegible].

"May we all Live to see Ireland's Independence and her People Free,"—response by Mr [illegible].

"Let us drink to Ireland's fair Daughters, and [illegible] Lovely Waters,"—responded to by Mr [illegible], Squire of the Canyon City Brotherhood. [illegible] being well spent, Marshal Burke next introduced the orator, E. A. Cronin, Esq., in a [illegible] speech, alluding warmly to the circumstances which had called the assemblage together, and quite feelingly to the surroundings, and the [illegible] that animated the organizations present, inaugurated for the successful accomplishment of the most high and holy aims of humanity, and vividly portraying the necessity for Irishmen to give to organizations their cordial endorsement on behalf of charity and benevolence. The [illegible] said that some of the smart men of the [illegible] ask: Is the Fenian Brotherhood a charitable or benevolent association? and he would say, yes! ten thousand times, yes! for [illegible] was there be more charity extended than to [illegible] down-trodden people, and starving men, [illegible] children, such as are to be found in Ireland, [illegible] the yoke of despotism to-day.

THE ORATION

[illegible] was a most befitting one for the [illegible] and did much credit to the orator, Mr E. A. Cronin, who has but recently come into our midst. He paid a handsome tribute to the memory of [illegible]'s patron saint, in honor of whose [illegible] day was known and commemorated. St. [illegible] from a youthful slave, had risen to eminence, and his name should be ever revered not by Irishmen, but by the prelates and [illegible] of all Christian lands. The bitter [illegible] of the enemies of Ireland, that glorious [illegible] acknowledged "Island of Saints," was the [illegible] full of some well-timed remarks by the speaker, [illegible] genius, science and social virtue of her [illegible] was befittingly mentioned. We regret that space will not admit of a full review of the address, the last peroration of which was couched in words calculated to inspire the hope of Irishmen for the redemption of their fatherland, and add to the collections of testimony brought forth on all similar occasions which will seal the verdict as [illegible] as holy writ, and close the judgment as if from heaven, decreeing freedom to the enthralled. We can confidently say there has never been, in Portland, a more enthusiastic effort to celebrate an anniversary. The entire proceedings of the day went far to show the advancement making by the Irish people, and the probability of realizing what all true Irishmen earnestly pray for—the [illegible] of Ireland.

THE EVENING EXERCISES.

The exercises at the New Columbian did not close the exercises of THE DAY CELEBRATED. In the evening a large party assembled at the [illegible], which was lighted throughout, and [illegible] in the halls, by the smiles of a happy [illegible]. The Band of the Fourteenth regiment was there, and the preparations made for the fifth annual ball of the Portland Hibernian Society were ample, and we may say without the slightest fear of contradiction, that the ball was equal to the best party ever given in the State. We cannot [illegible] when we have mingled in a more harmonious gathering than there assembled. The ladies were joyous, the music unequalled, the supper superb enough for any occasion, and the celebration so terminated, without the slightest obstacle to mar any portion of the festivities. The weather, which we alluded to at the beginning of the anniversary, changed during the evening, and warm drops of rain were shed sufficient to lay the dust on the pavement, which may be considered in the light of tears shed for the cause, by sympathizing friends after reflecting over the festivities enjoyed in a free country, but which have not been permitted for Ireland since the bright era on her page of history dating from its baptism by St. Patrick until the invasion by cruelty and inhumanity. We cannot close this public description of the celebration of the 17th without expressing the hope written within us, that before the recurrence of the next anniversary the world will witness the dawn of a brighter day for Ireland.

THE FULTON HOUSE.—By reference to our advertising columns this morning, it will be seen that the House three miles north of the city on the McAdamized road formerly known as the [illegible] House has lately been [illegible] improved, newly furnished [illegible] and is in future to be known as the Fulton House under the proprietorship of Mr. Samuel W[illegible]. The [illegible] to the Fulton House is a very pleasant [illegible] and [illegible] speak by the card when we endorse the [illegible] of the enterprising proprietor.

PERSONAL.—Mr. F. J. [illegible] formerly assayer with Wells, Fargo & Co in this city, returned by the Pacific last evening, to again take charge of that department of the company here. Mr. Johns is well known in the [illegible] and his friends will be glad to learn of his return among us. Previous to his connection with Wells, Fargo & Co, Mr. Johns was assayer at the San [illegible] branch mint.

CIRCUIT COURT.—P. P. SHATTUCK JUDGE.—The February term of the Circuit Court for Multnomah county after a long session, adjourned sine die on Saturday closing with a decree in the case of [illegible] et al vs. Northrup et al, concerning the final settlement of the Portland Wharf Company affairs.

ACCEPTED WITHOUT A MURMUR.—Last evening, while we were plodding wearily through the drudgery of getting up a first class morning paper our sinking spirits were rallied by the receipt, from Frank Hill of the [illegible] House, of a [illegible] including a plenty of lunch [illegible] and several tumblers with something to fill em with. The office corps accepted the compliment without a murmur.

CLEARED.—The bark Lizzie Vaulter, Capt Wiggin cleared on Saturday. Her cargo will be taken on at Oak Point, to consist of lumber.

FAREWELL BENEFIT.—This evening is the time set for the farewell play of the Ward Theatrical Company at Willamette Theatre in this city and it has been selected by Mr. Ward as his benefit. That something more than ordinary is due the [illegible] of the play [illegible] we deem it now will go [illegible]. He has been [illegible] with many cares and causes other than the [illegible] while here have combined [illegible] to [illegible] travel. As he feels a [illegible] the many kind offices and [illegible] rendered him [illegible] parting with us we hope [illegible] a token of appreciation [illegible]. A manager who [illegible] under the circumstances [illegible] amusing the strangers in our midst. It must be acknowledged [illegible] advantage [illegible] our citizens that [illegible] self. The mass of what is commonly termed the floating population of this coast are mainly dependent upon the amusements offered [illegible] winter season in [illegible]. That city that has the best theatre, the greatest variety of entertainments is the most likely to retain within it the [illegible] part of the people from mining sections. An evidence of what [illegible] us the past winter in [illegible] having a suitable building for a company [illegible] is to be found on the records of the Recorder's [illegible]. No amusement has been offered—could be offered we will say attractive to persons of refinement [illegible] this class has left us almost wholly the [illegible] of creditors have remained here, congregating at the [illegible] of vice in the basement of such buildings as Mr. [illegible] and Mr. Vaughn, property that ought to command tenants of the first order. Our best buildings then are converted into dens of infamy by persons who have no lot or interest with us [illegible] our theatre is patronized but partially by our permanent residents. In looking [illegible] the annals of the Court [illegible] any see that it [illegible] indeed that one of our citizens is arraigned. There can be no more law abiding people than are settled in Portland but by mismanagement we are not allowed to enjoy the presence of a very large number of the respectability [illegible] the mountains in winter and the great percentage of roughs [illegible] stigma [illegible] the place. We trust Mr. Ward will receive a bumper [illegible] which he so justly deserves [illegible] citizens of Portland will ponder over the facts above stated [illegible] that by [illegible] coming winter we shall not only have [illegible] a Concert Hall and an Opera House, which will be sufficient to work a decided change in the state of affairs alluded to.

ANOTHER HOMICIDE.—One of those incidents that so frequently happen on the Pacific coast and which causes a shudder to pass through the frame of every law abiding citizen, occurred in this city yesterday. Geo. Hallin, somewhat notorious in our community, on account of his connection with a late robbery on Second street, was killed at a house of ill fame on Washington street at 6½ o'clock yesterday morning. He escaped the sentence of justice by leaving for California rather suddenly some months ago, and although it was rumored he had returned here he had not been seen until recently when he arrived from Vancouver, and the alterations in his dress and appearance made him a difficult subject for recognition. He was identified in certain circles, however, and has been seen very often by parties most intimate with him. When Hallin was detected in the robbery of Flick with the prostitute Cecilia Lyon he was living with a female who was thought to be his wife—but whether she was or not we do not presume to say. On his return she would have nothing to do with Hallin having taken up with another person perhaps and with two other women was keeping a brothel on Washington street opposite the old Times Printing office. At about the hour above mentioned, yesterday morning Hallin and a few of his boon companions made a descent on the house. How an entrance was effected is not established clearly, and we will not attempt to describe the process, preferring in this case that the action in Court shall elicit the facts. He had been in the house but a short time, at all events, when pistol shots were heard, and persons were seen issuing from the premises. Hallin dropped on the side-walk, upon coming out at the front door, and died in about five minutes the fatal ball having severed a vital cord in the neck and lodged near the spine. The silk tie about his neck was cleverly cut off by the ball in its course. An inquest was held by Justice Anderson, on the spot, and a verdict rendered that the deceased came to his death by a pistol shot wound, inflicted by the hand of some person not definitely known. Michael Gallagher was among those seen leaving the house, and he has given himself up to await examination. John Torrence and Anna Morgan were also lodged in jail. The matter will be investigated to-day.

THANKS.—McCormick, of the Franklin Book Store, sent us last evening a large lot of the best and latest Eastern and California papers. All who desire to obtain newspapers and magazines can find them this morning at McCormick's.

HELD TO APPEAR.—The final judgement of the Recorder's Court, in the case of the State vs. Strauss and Mosserman, was that defendants be held to appear in bonds of $500 each. In default they were committed to the county jail.

ANOTHER CONVICT.—Sheriff Hendrick, of Marion county, arrived yesterday, having in charge James Fagan, lately sentenced to three years servitude in the Penitentiary, on a charge of horse stealing.

SELLING OFF.—Chas Barrett advertises $40,000 worth of Stationery, etc., to be disposed of, together with 10,000 other articles, within the next six months.

PRECINCT MEETINGS.—Notice appears in another column for the precinct meetings, to be held in this city to-morrow.

NEWS FAVORS.—Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Messenger has our hearty thanks for a large bundle of late papers.

NOT WELLS.—The person arrested in Idaho for Wells, the murderer, after going through a terrible ordeal in California, has finally been identified as another and different man. We learn from the Alta California of the 15th, that on the day previous, he was taken before Judge McKune, on a writ of habeas corpus, and his identity being established to the satisfaction of the Court, he was unconditionally released from custody.

"MY WIFE SAVED IT FOR ME."—One hot afternoon, when the air scorched the lungs when it was breathed in, and no business was stirring to keep the brain from going to sleep, I lay and and dozed quietly and shady in my room, which overlooked the street. Presently there came voices. Two men appeared to be in consultation on my doorstep. The windows were wide open and their voices came up to me with great clearness, so that I had no choice but to hear.

The tenor of their conversation was curious. One, it seemed, had found life cheery and pleasant, and it was one who I had revolved with a touch of his finger turning all to gold. Both were past the middle age. Both were, to all appearance, hearty and of long lived stock. Each had gone his way through life, and a chance meeting had led them both to sit down on my doorstep and cool off in the shade, and they fell into an earnest talk. Evidently schoolmates once, of later years they had seen little of each other. It was a favorable opportunity, this of my doorsteps, to compare notes.

"Tell me John," said the more poorly clad of the two, "how have you come to get along so well, and make money till you are rich?" John's voice fell into a tender tone as he answered, "I'll tell you. It was my wife who did it!" "Your wife, John—how?" "Why simply in this way: One day, when I had been in business four or five years, I wanted money badly, and didn't know where to raise a hundred dollars that I needed to pay a note falling due next day. I told my wife that night.

She made no reply, but rose and went to the closet handy, and came back to me holding out a stocking well filled. Handing it to me, she said, 'There John, are one hundred and twenty dollars which I have saved up in sixpences and shillings, take them and do what you please with them.' I hadn't a word to say; but that taught me a lesson. I resolved to be careful of the small outgoes after that, Peter, and I was; and now, after ten years, I am worth enough to keep me and mine above want.

I found that the way to make money was to be careful of the small things—a sixpence here and a shilling there. And, above all, that an economical and loving wife may make a man, instead of breaking him. My wife put a new notion into my head, and I have never forgotten it. She has made me what I never could have made of myself."

I heard Peter heave a sigh, as he acknowledged that his wife did not consult his interest, but always spent up to her income. And then I could not help thinking that if women would only realize the power they have of making a man's home happy, by adapting themselves to circumstances, how many more genial, steady husbands and fathers there would be, and how much good it would do every man to say, as John said, "My wife made me what I am—comfortable and happy and contented."

ABOVE HIS BUSINESS.—It is a serious evil that many a young man has fallen into, to be above his business. A person learns a trade, and then he must go to shop keeping, or street-loafing, or turn politician. Fool! If he cannot make a living at his trade, we are sure he cannot any other way. And then young men brought up to shop-keeping must buy farms, or houses, or some other foolish thing they know nothing about, and what is the result? Head over heels in debt and certain failure. Multitudes have been ruined by being above their business and branching out into what they know nothing about.

There is no trouble about young men who do not feel their importance, and who are willing to work at their trades or professions till they get a little beforehand. With a small capital to fall back upon, they can feel like venturing into other business—and by this time will have formed habits that are likely to keep them straight. Those who succeed best in life are men who stick to their business and make money before they buy farms and houses and commence speculating. Look at our successful men, and you will see where lies the secret of success.

You will find that they never were above their business, and never paid for the doing of a job which they could just as well do themselves. Of this we are sure; if all men will be prompt and punctual, stick to their business, and not be too proud, they will eventually succeed and become independent.

THE CASE STATED.—The President and his chief Secretary complain that the representatives of the South are waiting to be admitted, but that Congress stolidly refuses them admission. Before the representatives can fairly ask admission the suspended States themselves must ask and receive it. To quote from the very able argument of Senator Howe:

> The election of members to serve in this or the other House, lending credentials to them, the presentation of such credentials here, is not an application to be restored to the status of States. Such proceedings characterize acknowledged States like New York and Ohio; States which have never forfeited their prerogatives. The fact of issuing such credentials assumes that their functions had not been suspended. We know they have been. The President declares they have been. In April last he distinctly notified all rebeldom that they were suspended. Why do they not ask for restoration, [illegible] at their Constitutions, and show us what sort of institutions they propose to establish in place of those they recently placed there for the protection of the Confederacy? Other communities, when they have sought to enter the circle of American States, have asked permission to do so. Wisconsin asked for it. Until she obtained it she did not assume the right to choose members to represent her in Congress. It is until, so to say this right was once conferred upon Louisiana and Mississippi. By rebellion they forfeited the right. In April they were notified the forfeiture would be enforced. Until the forfeiture is remitted they have no right to choose members of this Senate. Until they have the right to choose Senators we ought not to consider the question whether they have chosen them, or whether those chosen have been regularly returned, or are properly qualified.
> The simple truth is, the representatives of those revolting States left these halls five years ago without the permission of the Nation, and they now propose to come back without its permission. They defied the Nation then to keep them in, they defy the Nation now to keep them out.

COLORADO NEWS.—We learn from the Denver News that on the night of the 30th, small pieces of white paper, cut in the shape of a coffin, were pasted by some unknown persons on the doors and windows of nearly every house in Denver, and that the body of a man was found hanging from a tree up Cherry creek, "having an enlarged counterpart of the mysterious coffin and a cross pinned to its breast." A letter from John G. Stevens, of Walker & Bro.'s train, dated "In Camp, near Fort Lupton, C. T., January 31st, 1866," states that on the previous evening, a wooding party discovered the bodies of three men hanging to the branches of a cottonwood tree. No papers were found on them by which they could be identified. Two were dressed in dark, citizen's clothing; the other had military pants, and a civilian's coat and vest. A man of the train declared that he had often seen one of them in Denver, but didn't know him. On the breast of each was painted a black coffin and red cross. They were buried at the foot of the tree. A large crowd of mounted vigilantes had been there, and from the tracks it appeared that they had come from, and departed in the direction of the city. Those who have reason to fear the Vigilates are trembling in their boots.

FREIGHT FOR OREGON.—The San Francisco Alta of the 15th inst. says:

The rush of freight to the North—Oregon, Washington and Idaho—is immense at this time. The steamer Pacific was full almost as soon as she hauled alongside her wharf, and drew out on Tuesday. The Montana commenced taking in freight at Pacific street wharf yesterday morning, and at 3 P. M. enough had been offered to load three such steamers. The drays and trucks on arriving at the wharf and getting into line would take on additional freight until their loads were from seven to twenty tons measurement each. At that hour we found that twenty nine teams had been admitted within the gates, and there were eighty more ranged in line along Pacific and Davis streets, awaiting their chances. Of this number about twenty would be able to get in and unload, and the steamer would then be full, leaving the other sixty to return to the warehouses of the disappointed would be shippers, to wait for the next steamer, perhaps to wait in vain even then.

HARD ON BEECHER.—Frederick Douglass, on making a speech lately in Brooklyn, New York, was induced to consider the Rev Henry Ward Beecher and some of his recent utterances affecting the rights of negroes. "I do not find fault with Beecher," said Fred, "though I do not always agree with him. I remember that, not many years ago he declared that if he could abolish slavery on the instant, or by waiting twenty five years could have it so abolished that its overthrow would wholly redound to the glory of the Christian Church he would prefer the latter. I presume he was entirely sincere in this preference, and yet if I were a Maryland slaveholder, and Beecher were my slave, and I had a rawhide, I could take that opinion out of him in less than half an hour."

AT HIS POST AGAIN.—G. W. Kendall, the original founder and for nearly twenty years the leading editor of the New Orleans Picayune, has returned to his old post after an absence of five or six years in the wilds of Texas where he was engaged in the pastoral pursuit of sheep raising. It is a singular fact, severe and oft times prosy as is the drudgery of editorial life, once an editor always an editor. Thurlow Weed, who three years ago resigned from the Albany Evening Journal, could not keep his active pen out of ink a year, and is now deeper in the business than ever, though over sixty years of age.

A TENNESSEE LADY MAKING HER MARK.—General Fisk, in a speech in Cincinnati lately, related the following:

Over $20,000,000 worth of property in Tennessee has been returned to the people by the Government upon their compliance with the conditions laid down for those once in rebellion. There are 90,000 people in that State who can neither read nor write! yet their hostility and bitterness toward the negroes, who are learning, is beyond description, unrelenting and intense. A few evenings ago, said General Fisk, "there came into my headquarters at Nashville, a Tennessee lady, elegantly attired in silk and velvet, to talk with me, as she said. I gave her a seat. She took it with 'an air,' and told me she wanted to recover her property seized by the Government. She abused it heartily, and read me a letter on Yankees and Abolitionists, and execrated them severely for killing her husband in battle, for he had only gone with the South to fight for its rights. I gave her the circular to read which contains the conditions of the Government for claimants to comply with. She asked me to read it for her. I told her that I had no time; that she had better do it herself, and then fill up the blanks provided to prove the legitimacy of her claim. She then admitted that she could neither read nor write.

I own that while I pitied her I felt a little mischievous; so I pointed to that young Ohio clerk, and told her he would write out the document for her. She was horrified, and asked me, with sharpness and asperity, 'Can that nigger write?' 'Yes, madam,' I said; 'and he will attend to the business for you.' With some reluctance she went to his desk. He arose, bowed, and gave her a seat, and made out in a fine round hand the necessary statement and then read it to her. It was then offered for her signature, but when she drew off her glove and I saw a splendid diamond sparkle on her finger as she made her 'mark,' I pitied her from my heart, for the superiority, the real superiority of the negro was seen in the simple transaction.

The poor woman, perhaps, felt it then herself, for she wept, came to her senses, regretted the harsh remark about the 'nigger,' and went away with ideas more becoming a reconstructed woman than when she came.

Opposition to the Bureau, General Fisk continued, I find in every shape. The old talk that the nigger won't work. I find on every hand that the people want to be let alone, just as they did when they were trying their best to destroy the Government. But we won't let them alone, for when I went among them to carry out the business of this Bureau, it was with the conviction that white and black must live together.

The labor of the blacks is wanted there, and it can be had if the whites will now only do right in getting it. It is my endeavor to earnestly engage both in building up the country torn and and desolated by war, and make it blossom once more as the rose.

PETROLEUM ON THE PLAINS.—The Salt Lake Vedette says:

Not far from Fort Caspar, or Platte Bridge, on the old Oregon and California route and about 130 miles west of Fort Laramie, there are situate some coal oil springs which run fifteen hundred gallons a day. They flow out from the foot of a steep mountain, in which is a coal bed or strata four feet wide. The soil around is sandy, and from a crevice in the sandstone springs the petroleum stream. This location is in the Black Hills, six miles from the Red Buttes. The oil was assayed in San Francisco, and yielded seventy-two percent, of the pure stuff. These springs were discovered last summer by J. I. Brannan, and are owned by him and a few of his friends. We learn that Brannan, has an offer from a company in Montreal to sell these springs. The purchasers will erect a refinery on the grounds so as to be able to supply these Territories with light this coming summer or fall.

EARTHQUAKE AT CORDOVA.—The Mexican papers give further accounts of the earthquake at Cordova. The dome of the church of San Antonio fell down, the tower and rest of the building left in a miserable state. The Parish Church had also been so much injured that it was found necessary to suspend public worship in it. Several houses fell down from the violence of the shock, and the piazza of the public square was likewise much injured. So terrified were the inhabitants, that as soon as it was over whole families rushed into the streets, repeating their prayers.

At San Andres Chalchicomula the earthquake was also very violent, and did much damage to the buildings, but no personal accident had been known of. On an estate near Orizaba four persons were killed. The same convulsion of nature occurred at Oajaca on the evening of the same day (the 2d of December,) between 6 and 7 P. M. It was accompanied with a fearful noise, and lasted for some time, knocking down the walls and roofs of several houses.

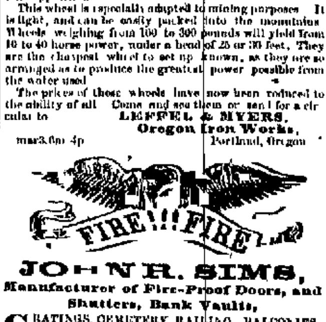
WATER WHEELS. POWER PLEDGED EQUAL TO THE Best Overshot Wheel in Existence.



Prices Greatly Reduced!
Prices Greatly Reduced!

LEFFEL'S
American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts, gives strength to the digestive organs, brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it if only taken in time.

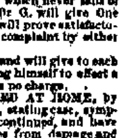
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



617 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cured in and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Doctor Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.
